CELINA, OHIO, FRIDAY, MARCH 10, 1911

Weekly-One Dollar per Year

Will Visit Coldwater at 2 p.m., Ft. Recovery at 3:20 and Return to Celina at 5 p.m.

If the visit of the agricultural special to three Mercer County towns next Monday is not a success the fault will not be with the newspapers, for they the people next.

A feature in connection with the visit of this special train not mentioned last week is the exhibiting of the ten prize-winning ears of corn at the Columbus corn show that netted the grower just $300. They will be good to look upon.

There will also be special exhibits of apples, alfalfa and other Ohio products.

Celina will be favored with an evening meeting at the City Hall it is represented to be. and it is hoped that it will get generous recognition from business men as well as farmers.

MEAN JOKE ON

Decoy Letter Is Used to Get Her here. Away, Then Hubby and Hired Girl Disappear.

[Ft. Recovery Tribune March 9.] John Smith, a married man living north of Bucks Corner, and a young girl formerly of Michigan, but who out of an ordinary casket without exhas been living at the Smith home for tra cost. some time, have eloped according to a story that has been received by the at Lima Thursday.

Mrs. Smith was decoyed to the home of her sister, Mrs. Burl Franks, of near Mrs. Kate Ellis'. West Fayette street, any just cause, left plaintiff's house Pennyille, Jay county, by a letter next Thursday, the 16th. stating that her sister was seriously ill. She went at once to Pennville only to find her sister in her usual good health. It was then that Mrs. Smith suspected the truth, and returnhome to find the husband and the girl gone. Her husband had taken all his belongings with him. Mrs. Smith

The news reached this city the first of the week of the marriage of Wm. three children survive him. His fu-Beiersdorfer, a former Celina boy, to neral took place from the Cranberry Miss Katheryn Richmond, of Wash- Catholic Church Tuesday morning. ington, D.C., at Phoenix, Ariz. They will make the latter city their home, where Mr. Belersdorfer is the manager of an automobile concern.

Miss Blanche L. Javnes and Clarence Lusk, of Wapakoneta, were wedded at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs Anna Weamer, West Wayne street, Bennett performed the ceremony, which was followed by a wedding dinman of Wapakoneta, and a son of Rev. J. B. Lusk of that city.

Dr. Wintermute and daughter Anneik, of this city, returned home Friday evening from Mt. Vernon, where they attended the funeral of the for brother, H. O. Wintermute. which took place in that city Thuisday. The deceased was eighty years of age, a prominent Mason and veteran of the civil war.

Pine-Tar-Honey.

That is Dr. Bell's. It is the original and can be relied on in croup, coughs, colds and all lung and bronchial tronbles. Look for the bell on the bottle.

SCUDDER

visiting with C. D. Siler and family. Mr. Donovan and family have moved on the Wm. Jenkins farm here.

poorly at this writing. son and wife spent Sunday with Arth- some of the porters, who are supposed

John White and wife are still very ur Siler and family Ora Now and wife.

Jake Smethers spent Sunday afternoon with Frank Stoner and family. Tom Spohn and wife spent Tuesday evening with A. Enyart.

About thirty-five lady friends of Mrs. J. N. Schaffer spent the day of the pages of the house be required to sale with her. A pleasant time was uniforms and caps to be provided by We are sorry to have her leave the state. us, but hope they will meet with success in their new location.

Ora Brock spent Tuesday at Lima. Angie Enyart is working for Mrs. J.

Mrs. Geo. Painter spent Friday with | feeble-minded youth. Mrs. Stevie Slebert. Mr. and Mrs. Spinner entertained company Sunday. Agnes Slebert spent Saturday with Mrs. Stevie Siebert.

For Croup

known remedy. Do not experiment, No. 3. get the genuine Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-

RILEY DRUG STORE.

Mystery and Magic

Hiavin, the wonder-work, sent out under the management of the Cleve-land Lyceum Bureau, will give one of is characteristic entertainments at the M. E. Church at Montesuma next Wednesday evening at 7:30. Hiavin carries a fine stage setting and equipment. However, he does not have to depend upon these to produce the illusions that so mystify the public. Go and see him. It will be worth your

The mill opening here Wednesday have done their part in putting sidering the bad weather, was well attended from far and near. The crowd which court he will proceed to trial. dealers, who were free in proclaiming 28, at 9:30 a.m.
It the best mill in Ohio, with latest and In the case of ost improved machinery.

rished the music.

The mill will run day and night, has of a ditch tax. its own electric light plant, and in addition the company, composed of farmrs and business men of South Mercer will buy and sell feed, hay, grain, wool, coal, salt and all other things incidental to mill business. Their flour will be on sale at all groceries and dealers, and a guarantee will go out with every sack that it is just what

The stockholders of the canning factory met last Tuesday and elected John of State of Obio vs. Dalton H. Miller, H. Gels President; Jos. Osterfeld, Vice sustained, and defendant discharged. President; Joseph J. Moeller, Treasur-er, and Frank P. Leatherbury, Secre-tary and Manager. Last season was a satisfactory one, and so far this year their business for this year, besides they will build an addition to the plant and pack sugar corn.

Jacob Heyl and son Leo were at Celina Thursday.

Henry Schmitt, our undertaker, has invented a patent which promises to be brace, so made that it will support the alleges that at time of their marriage lid of a coffin or make a couch casket defendant had a husband living from Othello S. Brandon, aged 43, died at went to the home of her mother where his home on Lisle street, this city, last unday evening of dread consumption Smith is 33 years old, while the after years of suffering. He was formyoung woman with whom he has fled erly an employs at the furniture facto-He was a son of the late Wm. and Sarah Brandon, and was born in this had and order of sale issued. township. He leaves a wife and two children-Grover and Lela. His funral took place yesterday.

> John H. Huelsman, aged 43, dled at his home two miles east of St. Henry last Saturday afternoan. Death was due to Bright's disease. A wife and

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Bettinger, North Mill street, aged three days, passed away last Sunday night. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon.

Ex-Treasurer Wm. J. Maehlman, of this city, accompanied by his brother, praisement March 7. last Sunday afternoon. Rev. Charles Banker Frank Machman of Ottowa, went to Cincinnati Saturday, where they were called by the death of their The groom is a young business brother-in-law, A. F. Hanneberg, who hearing May 1. passed away in that city last Friday morning.

Page Uniform Bill Is Joked to Death

[From Toledo Blade, March, 2.] "Do you work around here?" denanded an imperious lobbyist of a modest, genial little man in the state house corridor. "Yes, I do some work around here."

resentative Gebhardt, of Dayton, and do it quiek." "He is in the committee room up-

"Well, I wish you would find Repstairs. Come with me." The lobbyist inquired of Gebhart about a pending bill. You will have to see Speaker Vining about that. He is personally interested in that measure. Sald Geb-Jako Smethers, of California, was hart, turning to the lobbilist's guide who, "does some work around here," introduced Speaker Samuel J. Vining. "Why, I-er-er-I-er-thought you were a porter." It was an embarrassing moment for the lobbyist, but the speaker apprecia-John Davis and family and Coe Wil- ted the joke and took no offense, for to be scrubbing floors, cleaning splt-Mrs. P. Canary spent Sunday with toons and washing windows for their $3 50 a day, including Sundays, have plenty of idle moments and are sartorial models. Representative George Wilber, of Union county took the incident serlously and introduced a resolution providing that all the porters and Representative Joseph F. Sawicki of Cleveland, offered an amendment that the uniforms be of the haremskirt style. It was adopted in a spirit of levity and the resolution referred to committee on the institution for Eighty-Acre Farm for Sale. An 80-acre farm in Center township, known as George Smethers farm; good house and barn, granary, two good wells and cistern; all well tiled and well fenced. Possession first of March. Dr. Beli's Pine-Tar-Honey is the best Inquire of I. N. KISER, Celina R. D. The Victor Oil Company, Cleveland, O.

Rexall Vegetable Compound for wonen. It contains no poisonous drugs when Depilatory will remove it with-

at Montezuma 15th WOTION TO QUASH

Is Overruled and Case Assigned for Trial March 28-Another Divorce Cast Filed.

Judge Layton, while holding court here last Saturday, overruled the demurrer in the case of E. Kuhlman vs. L. W. Collins et al., and leave was given to reply by March 18.

In the case of the State of Ohio vs. Irvin Brush, the court overruled the motion to quash indictment and plea was a most auspicious event, and con- in abatement overruled. Motion to rescluded many mill men and grain Case assigned for trial Tuesday, March

In the case of Perry Cisco vs. John The affair was a pleasant one. The addes served lunch all day, and samulate based and break served lunch all day and samulate based and case dismissed ple pastry, bread and bircuits were at plaintiff's cost. Notice of appeal displayed. The St. Henry band furgiven; bond fixed at $250. The suit was brought to enjoin the assessment

Motion was sustained in case of Mary E. B. Lane et al. vs. Clinton Lane April 1.

Judge Layton sustained a motion to lischarge the attachment in the case of Hauss & Betler Co. vs. W. T. Hank-ins at plaintff's costs. Time to file petition in error fixed at fifteen days from March 4. Motion to quash indictment in case

Co. vs. The Model Milling Co., report

John H. Bowers, Burkettsville, filed Mrs. J. H. Gardner, of Celina, spent couple days this week with relatives riage contract existing between himself and Zilla B. Bowers, the defendant in this suit, be totally dissolved. He states in his petition that he and the defendant were married on June 8. 1895, in Darke county, and that no children were born as issue of said good thing for him. It is a patent marriage. For grounds of divorce he whom she had never been divorced and from whom on Feburary 13, 1911, applied for a divorce, further alleging B. Romer and H. A. Beckman were that the defendant has been guilty of Grand Spring Millinery Opening at ruary 22, 1919, said defendant, without and has ever since neglected and refused to perform any of her marital

In the matter of Emery Loudenbeck administrator of Mary E. Bryan, deceased, proceedings to sell real estate. Answer of widower filed. Hearing Last will and testement of Geo, R, McDaniel, deceased, admitted to probate. Commission issued to McDaniel to take election of widow. Charles Severns, guardian of Thos. Severns, filed final account. For hearng March 31.

Chas, G. Wilson, guardian of Rebecs ca Billman, filed additional bond. In the matter of B. F. Powell, guar- me. dian of Delliah V. Powell et al., proceedings to sell real estate. Order to appraise filed. Application to sell at private sale flied. Order to sell issued. Last will and testament of Henry Leising, deceased, admitted to probate and record. Election of widow filed, Josephina Leising appointed and qualified as executrix. Inventory and ap-Emory Loudenbeck, administrator of Elizabeth Bobenmoyer, deceased, filed petition to sell real estate. For

The following were the quotations for grain, live stock, poultry and produce in the Uelina market yesterday evening. (Furnished by Palmer & Miller) nothy, per bush.... (Furnished by The Model Milling Co. No. 1 timothy, per ton... No. 1 mixed, per ton..... No. 1 clover, per ton.....

LIVE STOCK. (Furnished by Frank Fischer Cattle, per 100 lbs..... Venl calves, per 100 lbs.... Hogs, per 100 lbs.... (Furnished by The J. A. Long Co.) owis, per ib.... pring Chicks, per Ib... Geese, per lb. No. 1 hides... (Furnished by Laudahn & Mesarvey)

Potatoes, per hugh Improved Farm for Sale.

Farm of sixty acres, 3 1-3 miles east other out buildings; ill health in family reason for selling; known as the Steve Kindel farm; a bargain if sold ANTON ALEXANDER.

Automobile for Sale.

Rec automobife; any one wishing to ourchase a second hand machine is asked to call on or write DAYTON FAST. Celina, O., R. D. No. 3, Box 59

Salesmen Wanted-To look after our interests in Mercer and adjacent counties. Salary or commission. Address Women, why have your face covered with unsightly superfluous hair. RILEY DRUG STORE.

Millinery Opening Thursday, Mar. 16

The largest showing of 1911 Spring Millinery in the county at Mas. KATE ELLIS' STORE, West Fayette street. All up-to-date patterns at prices to suit everyone. See our display before making a purchase. Spring opening next Thursday.

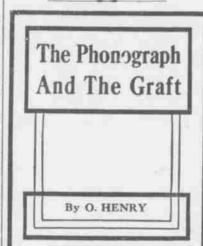

HASKELL VINING. A new Richmond in the auctioneer ones in the game sit up and take notice before another season rolls around.

Mrs. Minnie Shimp, of Oregon, was pleasantly and completely surpised W. King and Franklin Pierce Jolly.

Admission, 20 and 35 cents. See eeded to give that good lady the time of State of Ohio vs. Dalton H. Miller, sustained, and defendant discharged.

After being out five hours, the jury in the case of the Blue Manufacturing cidentally, some $25 in cash.

satisfactory one, and so far this year they have more acreage than last year, but they expect to more than double and found for the defendant—no cause of action—and found for the defendant on his Thursday, the 16th.

I looked in at the engine room of the Bloomfield-Cater Manufacturing Company (Ltd.) for the engineer was Kirksy, and there was a golden halfhour between the time he shut down steam and washed up that I coveted. pipe Ht, smut-faced and blue overalled.

"Tis a fair afternoon," I said, "but bids to be colder." "Did I ever tell you," began Kirksy honorably, "about the time Henry Horsecollar and me took a phonograph to South America?" and I felt ashamed of my subterfuge, and dropped into the wooden chair he kicked toward

"Henry and me met at Texarkana and figured out this phonograph scheme. He had $360 and 1 had $288. The phonograph idea was Henry's, but took to it freely, being fond of ma chinery of all kinds. "We bought a fine phonograph in Texarkana-one of the best makeand half a trunkful of records. We packed up and took the T. and P. for New Orleans.

"We landed on a smiling coast at as near as I can recollect, of Sore-toekangaroo, 'Twas a palatable enough place to look at.

"Henry skinned a twenty off his mercenary dispositions a paper bearing a red seal and a dialect story and no change.

"Then we got the consul full of red wine, and struck him for a horoscope He was a thin, youngish kind of man I should say past fifty, sort of French-Irish in his affections, and puffed up with disconsolation. Yes, he was a flattened kind of a man, in whom drink lay stagnant, inclined to corpuence and misery. Yes, I think he was a kind of Dutchman, being very sad and genial in his ways.

" 'The marvelous invention,' he says, entitled the phonograph, has never before invaded these shores. The peo- office for just one hour to have a ple have never heard it. They would stein and a caviare sandwich somenot believe it if they should. Simple- where on Thirty-fourth street, and It was a cornet solo, very neat and bearted children of nature, progress has never condemned them to accept the work of a can-opener as an overture, and rag-time might incite them to a bloody revolution. But you can ry the experiment. The best chance ou have is that the populace may not wake up when you play. There's two ways,' says the consul, 'they may take it. They may become inebriated with attention, like an Atlanta colonel listening to "Marching Through Georgia," or they will get excited and transpose f Chattanooga; good house, barn and the key of the music with an ax and yourselves into a dungeon. In the lat-

The Colds That Hang On

Of Wabash High School Lecture Course-Big and Diversified Program of Merit.

The fourth number of the Washington township High School lecture course will be given by the Marsh Concert Company of Pennsylvania to-mor-School auditorium

Mr. and Mrs. Marsh offer to the public something new and keenly appetizing, a program consisting of readings, sketches, impersonations, bell ringing. instrumental music and ventriloquism. tions are always pleasing and true to the character portrayed. As a ventril-oquist he has few equals. He delights his audiences while he reproduces in a manner as humorous as may be, the vocal pecularities of men, birds and beasts. He introdued a set of life-like figures that are the best that mechanical genius can produce. The bells, organ chimes and marimbaphone have proven a great delight. Mrs. Marsh is et al. and leave to amend on or before field, who is likely to make some older a reader of rare power and attainments and captivates her audience with artistic finish and pleasing personality,

They have the endorsement of such renowned platform favorites as Byron Admission, 20 and 35 cents. Seats her 49th birthday. Eighty-one people reserved free. Phone to High School took possession of her home and proa pair of gum_boots. The other time was when a man named Pease was going to be executed here. They referred that appeal to the secretary of agriculture. Let us now disturb the senor behind the bar for a subse quence of the red wine.

"Thus soliloquized the consul Sore-toe-kangaroo to me and Henry Horsecollar. "But, notwithstanding, we hired a room that afternoon in the Calle de los Angeles, the main street that runs along the shore, and put our trunks

there "We were rubbing the dust off the machine and getting fixed to start business the next day, when a big. fine-looking white man in white clothes stopped at the door and looked We extended the invitation, and he walked inside and sized us up.

'New York?' he says to me finally "'Originally, and from time to time, 'Hasn't it rubbed off yet?' "'It's simple,' says he, 'when you know how. It's the fit of the vest. They don't cut vests right anywhere Coats maybe, but not vests.' "The white man loks at Henry Horsecollar and hesitates. "'Injun,' says Henry; 'tame Injun. "'Mellinger,' says the man-'Homer P. Mellinger. Boys, you're confiscated. You're babes in the wood without a chaperon or referee, and it's my duty I found Kirksy resting, with his to start you going. I'll knock out the props and launch you proper in the pellucid water of Sore-toe-kangaroo. You'll have to be christened, and it you'll come with me I'll break a bottle of wine across your bows, according to Hoyle." "Mine and Henry's money was counerfeit. Everything was on Homer P Mellinger. That man could find rolls of bills in his clothes where Hermann the Wizard couldn't have conjured out an omelet. He could have founded universities and had enough left to buy the colored vote of his country. Henry and me wondered what his graft was. One evening he told us. "'Boys,' says he, Twe deceived you. Instead of a painted butterfly I'm the hardest worked man in this country "'My job is private secretary to the president of this republic, and my duties are running it. I'm not heada town they denounced by the name, lined in the bills, but I'm the mustard in the salad dressing. There isn't a law goes before congress, there isn't concession granted, there isn't an import duty levied, but what H. P. roll, and received from the bureau of Mellinger he cooks and seasons ft. In the front office I fill the president's inkstand and search visiting statesmen for dynamite; in the back room

I dictate the policy of the government. "Boys, I'm to hold a soiree this evening with a gang of leading citizens, and I want your assistance. You bring the musical corn sheller and give the affair the ouside appearance of a function. There's important business on hand, but it mustn't show. I can talk to you people. I've been pained for years on account of not having anybody to blow off and brag to. I get homesick sometimes, and I'd swap the entire perquisites of stand and watch the street cars go by, and smell the peanut roaster at old Giuseppe's fruit stand."

" 'Yes,' said I, 'there's the caviare at Billy Renfrow's cafe, corner of Thirty-fourth and-"God knows, it," iterrupts Mellinger, 'and if you'd told me you knew Billy Renfrow I'd have invented tons of ways of making you happy. Billy was my side kicker in New York. That is a man who never knew what crooked was. Here I am working Honesty for a graft, but that man loses money on it. Carrambos! I get ter case, says the consul, 'I'll do my sick at times of this country. Every- of conspiracy against every man of duty by cabling to the state depart- thing's rotten. From the executive you. The show is over, gentlemen." ment, and I'll wrap the Stars and down to the coffee pickers, they're Stripes around you when you come to plotting to down each other and skin be shot, and threaten them with the their friends. If a mule driver takes vengeance of the greatest gold export off his hat to an official, that man and financial reserve on earth. The figures it out that he's a popular idol, flag is full of bullet holes now,' says and sets his pegs to stir up a revolu the consul, 'made in that way. Twice | tion and upset the administration. It's before, says the consul, 'I have cabled one of my little chores as private secour government for a couple of gun- retary to smell out these revolutions boats to protect American citizens, and affix the kibosh before they break The first time the department sent me out and scratch the paint off the government property. That's why I'm down here now in this mildewed coast Are readily cured by Dr. Bell's Pine- town. The governor of the district they're invited to listen to the phonograph to-night, compliments of H. P. M. That's the way I'll get them in a bunch and things are on the program to happen to them.' "We three were sitting at table in the cantina of the Purified Saints. Mellinger poured out wine, and was looking some worried; I was thinking.

kind of fretful. 'They're capitalized by a foreign syndicate after rubber, and they're loaded to the muzzle for bribing. I'm sick,' goes on Mellinger, River and wear suspenders again. At row (Saturday) night at the High but I'm d-n fool enough to be sort being filed by Cito Groth et al. of proud of it. "There's Mellinger," they say here, "Por Dios! you can't touch him with a million." I'd like to take that record back and show it to Billy Renfrow some day, and that Mr. Marsh is a versatile entertainer of exceptional ability. His impersons thing that I could corral just by winkthing that I could corral just by winking one eye-and losing my graft.

breaks his glass against the neck of the bottle.

"I says to myself, 'White man, if I'm not mistaken there's been a bait laid out where the tail of your eye could

"That night according to arrange ments, me and Henry took the phonograph to a room in a 'dobe house in structed them to meet on April 3. dirty side street, where the grass was knee high. 'Twas a long room, lit with smoky oil lamps. There was plenty of chairs and a table at the back end.

"By and by the invitations to the nusicale came sliding in by pairs and threes and spade flushes. Their color pany of Ft. Recovery, and the First Napatent leather polish. They were as polite as wax, being devastated with enjoyments to give Senor Mellinger the good evenings. I understood their Spanish talk-I ran a pumping engine two years in a Mexican silver mine, and had it pat-but I never let on.

"Maybe fifty of 'em had come, and seated, when in slid the king bee, the governor of the district. Mellinger met him at the door, and escorted him to the stand. When I saw that Latin man I knew that Mellinger, private secretary, had all the dances on his card taken. That was a big, squashy man, the color of a rubber overshoe, and he had an eye like a head waiter's.

'Mellinger explained, fluent, in the Castilian idioms, that his soul was disconcerted with joy at introducing to his respected friends America's greatest invention, the wonder of the age. Henry got the cue and run on an elegant brass-band record and the festivities became initiated. The governor man had a bit of English under his hat, and when the music was choked off he says: American gentleemen, the so esplendeed moosic as to playee."

"The table was a long one, and Henry and me sat at the end of it next the wall. The governor sat at the other end. Homer P. Mellinger stood at the side of it. I was just wondering how Mellinger was going to handle his crowd, when the home talent suddenly opened the services.

"That governor man was, suitable for uprisings and policies. I judge he his own time.

"'Do the American senors understand Spanish?

" 'They do not,' says Mellinger. "'Then listen,' goes on the Latin man prompt. 'The musics are of sufficient prettiness, but not of necessity. Let us speak of business. I well know why we are here, since I observe my terday, Senor Mellinger, of our proposals. To-night we will speak out. We know that you stand in the president's favor, and we know your influence. The government will be changed. We know the worth of your services. We esteem your friendshir and aid so much'-Mellinger raises his hand, but the governor man bottles him up. 'Do not speak until I have done.' "The govenor man then draws package wrapped in paper from his and family. pocket, and lays it on the table by Mellinger's hand. "'In that you will find one hundred thousand dollars in money of your country. You can do nothing against us, but you can be worth that for us Go back to the capital and obey our instructions. Take that money now We trust you. You will find with it a paper giving in detail the work you will be expected to do for us. Do no have the unwiseness to refuse.' "Henry stooped and got a record from the basketful we'd brought, slid it in the phonograph, and started off. beautiful, and the name of it was 'Home, Sweet Home.' Not one of them fifty-odd men in the room moved while it was playing, and the governor man kept his eyes steady on Mellin ger. I saw Mellinger's head go up lit tle by little, and his hand came creeping away from the package. Not un til the last note sounded did anybody stir. And then Homer P. Mellinger takes up the bundle of boodle and slams it in the governor man's face.

other in the morning. I have proofs ing. "'There's one more act,' puts in the governor man. 'You are a servant, I believe, employed by the president to copy letters and answer raps at the in informing you I have used Dr. Bell's

"'That's my answer,' says Mellinger, private secretary, 'and there'll be an-

Continued on Page Eight. Dr. Bell's Anti-Pain.

door. I am governor here. Senors,

Dr. Bell's Anti-Pain.

A sudden attack of cholera morbus is farm, with good improvements; on dangerous. Keep Dr. Bell's Anti-Pain good pike two miles from Celina; pike at hand. A dose relieves almost instantly. It also cures diarrhoea, cramps, LEY DAUG STORE.

flux and all bowel complaints

Measures Are at Hana

When the tongue of trade is conted, when the eyes and limbs of the clerk are dult and languid, when the raging fover tackles the empty vitals of the till, when the apider roots in the empty man-hox, and bouquets of decay are on the chandeliers, it is conclusive that the advertising doctor has not been consuited.

The Time for Heroic

Another adjournment on the Wabash ditch hearing was had until March IT.

The Board bought 300 feet of 13-inch gai "They're a sharp crowd,' he says, vanised cast from culverts at $1.10 per foot, and 100 foot of 10-inch at 90 cents, from the Galion Iron Works, of Gallon, O.

Two more pike petitions were filed, one of comic opera. I want to smell East praying for the improvement of a road under the two-mile assessment law in Blacktimes I feel like throwing up my job, creek and Liberty townships the petition

The route is described as follows: Beginning at the southwest corner of the northwest quarter of Section I, and the southeast corner of the northeast quarter of Section Z. town 5 south, range 1 east; thence porth on the section line road between the north half of Section I, and the north half of Sec. "Mellinger appears shaky, and tion 2, same town and range, and between Sections 35 and 36, town 4 south, range 1 east, to the northeast corner of Section 15, and the northwest corner of Section 36, town 4 south, range I east, and there termi-

The board appointed Lewis Eckhart, John Fiely and H. B. Bennett as viewers, and in-The other petition was filed by Hy Mestemaker, and asks for the improvement of a road under the one-mile assessment laws in Marion township. The board fixed March 14 as the day to go upon the road. Bonds of the Ft. Recovery Banking Com-was of a diversity, running from a tional Bank, The Citizens Banking Go, and three days' smoked meerschaum to a The Commercial Bank, of this city, as county depositaries, were filed and accepted. The following bills were allowed last Fri-

> Andy Baner, ditch costs
>
> delina Democrat, stationery
> F.A. Snyder, same and publications
> Observer, publications
> Bote, same
> Columbus B. B. Mig. Co., stationery
> Celina Gas Co., gas
> Celina E. L. Co., light
> Geo. N. Klinison, bridge repair
> Mrs. Lillie and Edward Kelch, compensation and damage on Leugers > pike...

day and are now payable:

Knox, error in overweight of Philip Linn, janitor's saiary
J. L. Mor.ow, Ohio Laws
John Mader, 108 rod 7-inch tile
McDanlel & Meister, embalming Samel Rhodes Raudabatish & Vining, insurance 25 00 Otto Witten, engineer fees 25 00 Wm. Ward, contract Sutton bridge 37 4 J. B. Yingling, repairs 4 00

"Ver-r-ree fine. Gr-r-r-racias, the Much Sickness Is Traced to Bowel Disorders.

> A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "Are your bow-els regular?" He knows that 98 per cent of sickness is attended with inacive bowels and torpid liver, and that this condition must be removed gently and thoroughly before health can be restored.

Rexall Orderlies are a positive, pleasant and safe remedy for constipation was a ready kind of man, who took and bowel disorders in general. We are so certain of their great curative value that we promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when they fail to produce entire satisfaction.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy, act quietly, and have a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, gripe, cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhoea or other annoying effect. They are compatriots. You had a whisper yes especially good for children, weak persons or old folks; Two sizes, 25c. and 10c. Sold only at our store-The Rexall Store. The R. E. Riley Drug Co., southeast corner Main and Market streets, Celina, O.

ELM GROVE

The box social at Elm Grove last Friday evening was a success and well attended.

John Elbright called on C. R. Taylor

Charles Andrews and Everett Smith, of Ada, attended the box social at Elm Grove, spent a few days with the for-mer's parents W. T. Andrews and family and returned to Ada, Monday. Mrs. Florence Vantilburg spent the latter part of last week with relatives at Mendon. John Steele and wife spent Monday n Celina with Wm. Dibble and wife Mrs. Albert Palmer and daughter Zorpha called on Mrs. Joe Myers Sunday. Roxie Rigley of Celina spent Sunday with Hazel and Nellie Vanfilburg. Wilson Kearns, who has been firing the furnaces in the West School building moved on the Hann farm Monday. David Emerick and family were at St. Marys Sunday visiting Mr. Emer-icks mother, who is ill. Mrs. Ralph Monroe and children visited C. R. Taylor and family Friday. Miss Ida Hoel of this place spent last Sunday with her sister Mrs. Charley Gray of Beaver Chapel. Jay Martin, of Celina, has been helping Allen Slusser break a coit this week. The Elm Grove school children have prepared a fire entertainment, to be given at the school-house this even-

Gives Prompt Relief. Wm. H. Douglas, jr., of Washington, D. C., says: I take great pleasure

Pine-Tar-Honey, and it gave me almost instant relief. Farm for Sale.

paid for, See P. E. KENNEY, Celina. Have you heart trouble? If so, why take chances when you can buy a guar-

If you want your prescriptions filled and is absolutely guaranteed by us. out injury to the most delicate skin. Tar-Honey. It relieves the cold and and his crew are plotting to uprise. Rexall Remedies for every ill. Every anteed remedy. It's the "Rexall Remedies for every ill. Every one absolutely guaranteed by the Ri-LEY DROU STORE.